FROM THE PNKF BOARD

PNKF is initiating a Yudansha practice. Tentative proposal is that we have it once a month on a Saturday morning, something like 8:30 to 10 a.m. at Highline. Obukan would be included in the plan as another practice site. Format would be similar to the recent Team practices, in that Mudansha would be welcome to attend, but should expect to have a rotation group separate from the Yudansha. The program would be geared to Yudansha. If anyone has any input into the development of this Yudansha practice, please tell David Yotsuuye (226-4296) or Jeffrey Marsten (246-2239).

THE LAST WORD

Feign ignorance and make no moves rather than feign knowledge and make rash moves. Stay motionless and hide one's intention. Clouds and thunder symbolize Tun (Difficult Beginning). The superior person brings order out of chaos. --Sun Haichen, The Wiles of War.
