PASSAGE The PNKF was stunned to learn of the sudden death November 20, 2007 in Boise of Kendo 2nd Dan Max Callao. Maximo Jose Callao, born February 18, 1941 in San Jose California, grew up in Salinas. He attended Hartnell College, where he began a lifelong career in European fencing, eventually becoming nationally ranked with the USFA and the winner of countless medals and trophies, culminating in representing the US at the Veterans World Fencing Championships in 2002 and 2005. Meantime, Max also trained hard in Japanese fencing. He founded the Idaho Kendo Kai, and led it through the steps to finally become an official PNKF Dojo in 1992. A graduate of San Jose State University, Max had trained in Oahu and served in the first Peace Corps mission to the Philippines 1962-1964. He returned to California where he taught elementary school in San Jose, then back to Oahu, where he taught and was the school counselor at Maili Elementary where in 1969 he married fellow teacher Denise Inafuku. Moving to Indiana, he got a Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology from Purdue University and Denise a Master's degree in Education. They moved to Idaho where Max became a professor, counseling psychologist, and Director of the Counseling Center at Boise State University, and later joined the graduate faculty of the College of Idaho as Graduate Studies Coordinator for their program at Mountain Home Air Force Base. Meantime, he had developed an extensive private psychotherapy practice. After retirement, he continued to work as a consultant for the Idaho State Disability Determination Unit. Max loved the bagpipes and played them well in the Boise Highlanders pipe band. He played the guitar and ukelele, and he was a horseman and a great soccer enthusiast and coach. Always very spiritually attuned, Max was learned in theology and a founding charter member of the beautiful Covenant Presbyterian Church where his funeral was held. Our sincere condolences to his wife Denise, children Aaron and Jenny, grandchildren Malia and Liberty, mother Marta, sister Becky, brothers Juan, Jul and Edgar, and all his numerous nieces and nephews and extended family members. (Editor's note: We are grateful to Steven Roosevelt MD who contributed to this article.)

SHINKYU SHINSA AUSKF KODANSHA SHINSA, November 11, 2007, South Bellevue Community Center

5TH DAN: Judy Abe (Chuo), Emi Anderson (ShoTokyo).
Note - The AUSKF does not provide the Kenyu with Kodansha Shinsa results, so if anyone can send us names of people who passed, we will be delighted to post them.

THE LAST WORD What was deemed proper bushi conduct was to confront an opponent fair and square, and to avoid relying entirely on technical ability or brute strength. Rather than analysing an enemy and relying on schemes to defeat them, the attitude of putting everything into one sacrificial attack was considered more worthy of pursuit. Never step back. --Uozumi Takashi, "Ryuha Kenjutsu: The Formation of Japanese Budo Culture," Kendo World 3.4, 2007, p. 72.
